ARMED FOR THE NAZIS

So Farhead Of German Force Pounded on Box Salient in Riveraine

By SAM ROBERTSON
Canadian Press Staff Writer

LONDON, May 17.—British forces facing the Germans in the Brussels area of Belgium have completed a "strategic withdrawal," it was officially announced tonight. They are at present dug-in along a canal which runs south of the Belgian capital. The reason for the withdrawal to previously prepared positions was stated to be the fact that a section of the Nazi column which penetrated into France now is swinging northwest toward the sea. It was conceivable that that column could affect a pincer crush on the British forces in Belgium if it was able to continue to progress. However, it was emphasized this possibility was foreseen days ago and that while the situation is serious it is far from critical.

As in the last war, Germany has won the opening round on points, it was stated, but there was doubt in high places that the Nazis would be able to keep up the terrific pace of the past week. Already there was reason to believe her armored divisions have almost outrun their vital petrol supplies.

LONDON, May 17.—The Allied forces were reported tonight to have fallen back along the 115-mile front from Antwerp to Sedan but, despite the withdrawals, a military spokesman said the situation in Belgium is "slightly better" for the Allies than yesterday. The Press Association, however, declared that authoritative quarters in London "do not attempt to disguise the opinion that the situation is of extreme gravity," and cautioned against "false optimism." Allied troops were understood to be still covering Brussels.

PARIS, May 17.—A great battle is raging at Avesnes, north of St. Quentin, tonight's French high command communique said.

LIEGE FORTS STILL HOLDING OUT IS CLAIM

Belgian Troops Resisting Heroically Despite Isolation

By FREDERICK KUH
British United Press Exclusive Cable to Edmonton Bulletin
LONDON, May 17.—In a dramatic announcement, the Brussels radio broadcast in London this morning the report that the Belgian forts at Liege—isolated from the supporting main armies since Saturday—are still holding fast.

The radio said: "The forts of Liege are still holding out. We have just received the news that our (Belgian) troops are resisting heroically—showing an example of efficiency and sacrifice to the whole world."

King Leopold the Third, as commander-in-chief of the Belgian army—had made a personal radio appeal to the forts yesterday to fight to the end.

The Belgian forts are commanded by Col. M. J. M. Modard, whom the king mentioned personally in his appeal, along with other officers.

TORIES WANT NEIGHEN BACK IN COMMONS

By GRANT DEXTER

LONDON, May 17.—A spectacular edition of the leadership position of the Conservative party may well be found in the return to the House of Commons of Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen.

Apparently this is the keen desire of the 38 members of the house who accepted Dr. Meighen's resignation a few days ago. Since then Mr. Meighen has been under tremendous pressure from the party in the House of Commons to return.

ROME, May 17.—Finance Minister Thaon De Revel disclosed to a number of points, moving both mechanized troops and infantry across the Adriatic sea.

Unofficial German sources in Berlin today said that the following seven days would determine the outcome of the war.

R.A.F. Breaks Through to Avon Benbow German Lines

British Bombers Blast Factories and Communications Including Strategic Motor Speedways

LONDON, May 17.—Britain called today for 250,000 home guards, felt satisfaction over reports that the Royal Air Force had dealt terrific blows behind the German lines in France and Belgium and noted historical records of the last attempt at invading her shores.

The last foreign raider in set foot on British shores was John Paul Jones, American Privateer in the War of Independence, a Scotman by birth.

Jones' attack, an effort of 32 men carrying only candles, went ashore April 22, 1778, and called for little repelling force, but the ministry of home security, realized that any possible landing of German parachutists, armed with modern weapons, would.

Amidst home-front preparations Britons read that their air force had wreaked considerable havoc in Germany, blasting factories and communications, including the strategic Autobahnen (motor speedways).

Dispatches from the front showed British troops drove the Germans from the outskirts of the Belgian city of Louvain but there were reports today that the Germans had launched a counter-attack and that the fight was still in progress.

Amidst the front-line reports, the Ministry of Home Security, which, at Chateau-Har-Ne, 50 miles to the northwest, also were reported destroyed.

One Whitley machine, noted by a raider, said it was a main highway while another blasted a mechanized column of German tanks.

Only one of the British raiders failed to return but two left the time came to abandon ship.

Duffy died in a hospital 24 hours later. He had been in for several days before the ship was attacked.

First lieutenant reported the wreckage of the machine, were believed to have been overcome by fumes from the bomb explosion as he did not appear on deck when the time came to abandon ship.

SKETCH BLASTS GERMAN THREAT KILL PRISONERS

LONDON, May 17.—The German threat that 10 Allied prisoners of war will be shot for each Nazi parachutist who is captured, was today editorially rebuffed from the Daily Sketch today.

"These men (the parachutists) will be shot if they are wearing uniforms of their own armies. But the lives of men in civilian clothes or in uniform are forfeited by the very act of being taken prisoner."

"That forfeit will be exacted, if the Germans retaliate the lives of the 100,000 British prisoners of war, which would be a monstrous and a crime of honor, now means murder and death."

The Nazi radio station Deutschland last night repeated the warning that the total of 10 prisoners would be executed for every parachutist killed.

German Losses Over Thousand Battle Planes

LONDON, May 17.—The air ministry said tonight that Germany has lost over 1,000 aircraft since the invasion of Poland by the German army.

Allied losses were put at only a few hundred. German sources said the Germans claim they were not down.

Amplifying an earlier communique telling of further attacks on Germany by the Royal Air Force, the ministry statement said many objectives received direct hits. No British aircraft was lost.

U.S. President Continues Drive Bolster Defences

Belgian Ship Beached After BOMB ATTACK

Crew Included 62 Canadians Two of Whom Were Killed

LONDON, May 17.—Beaching of the Belgian liner De Bruges, formerly the President Wilson, after a bombing attack three days ago was described by members of the crew who were reported London today.

The crew included 62 Canadians of whom two were killed.

James Gilman of Montreal, the 35-year-old boatwain, said that 84 passengers, most women, were on board when the ship was hit.

The 13,000-ton ship was transferred to Belgium registry last January. It was heading out of a Belgian port when attacked. Four members of the crew, including the R.C.A.F. pilot at Brion, were killed today when their big machine crashed near Cobourg.

The plane crashed early today in the darkness and searchers found no immediate trace of the four airmen, who had taken off earlier from the R.C.A.F. airport at Brion, about 25 miles away from where they crashed near Cobourg.

The wreckage was spread for 100 yards around the spot where the big Norseman machine came down.

ALLIED STATUS IS IMPROVING LONDON AVERS

R.A.F. Is Decisively Superior To Enemy, War Council Reports

LONDON, May 17.—An authoritative source said today that the military situation from the standpoint of the Allies "though very serious may be regarded as very slightly better than yesterday or on Wednesday."

A meeting of the Allied supreme war council in Paris yesterday attended by Prime Minister Churchill was described as having "a very beneficial effect."

The prime minister flew to Paris and returned by plane.

WAR POSITION

This is an authoritative British view of today's war position:

1.—The situation on the French battle line is very serious.

2.—However, the outcome is awaited with "complete confidence."

3.—Reports from the fighting zones make it clear that the Royal Air Force, "machine for machine," is decisively superior to the enemy.

4.—British spokesmen compared the present battle of the Meuse with the protracted fighting at Verdun in the first Great War from February to November, 1916.

VARYING FORTUNES

They said the battle which was expected to continue "with varying fortunes for both sides" and that it was impossible to say whether the Allies were in a "decisive" position.

5.—Churchill, he said, called the fighting the "battle of the bulge," due to the conformation of the line.

ROGERS RETURNS FROM OFFICIAL OVERSEAS VISIT

OTTAWA, May 17.—Excellent relations prevail between the British and French forces in France, Defence Minister Rogers said today on his return from an official visit overseas for consultation with Allied war leaders.

Expressing restrained optimism about the outcome of battles now in progress, Mr. Rogers had nothing to say about the tactical situation or about overseas or their results so far as Canada's war effort is concerned.

Such matters may be dealt with in the House of Commons at an early date.

Prime Minister Mackenzie King went to the station to greet Mr. Rogers along with a number of officials of the national defence department.

Mr. Rogers said the Empire air training scheme is "proceeding according to timetable" and that it is a "great deal of interest and attention" in the scheme in both Great Britain and France, he said. Both countries, he added, appreciated the "importance" of the plan.

Refugees From Low Countries Reach London

There were many baby carriages, some only a few months old, huddled together to protect them when the German aircraft swooped down.

"It was a miracle that we were not hit," said an Irish mother who was travelling with her children, "but it was a very close shave."

More than 50 species of African antelope do not appear on any other continent.

CONSTRUCTION IS BLAMED FOR MOST OF FIRES

Faulty Building Is Said Major Fire Cause In North America

QUEBEC, May 17.—Faulty building construction "was to blame for all but one of 51 major conflagrations in Canada and the United States in the last 100 years," T. A. Fleming, of New York, said in an address yesterday before the annual convention of the International Fire Prevention Association.

"We haven't made our architects, we haven't made our engineers fire proof," Mr. Fleming said as he addressed delegates to the one-day convention after Col. E. H. Munn, of Ottawa, outlined the fire precautions program in Great Britain and Canada.

He claimed 11,000 lives in the United States last year, Mr. Fleming said. More than 60 per cent of the fires were in homes and 78 per cent of them were caused by improper ideas of architecture.

Col. Munn, who recently returned from England, said the air raid precautions organization in Canada was not "particularly concerned about air raid precautions, but concerned about sabotage and fire."

He gave a detailed account of services rendered by the A.R.P. organization in Great Britain.

Chances of a bombing raid of any extent on Canada "were remote," Col. Munn said, but he said the enemy to break through and to have the enemy on the inside.

The Dominion government, he said, has organized for protection of civilians, particularly in the reports, but schemes for Montreal and Quebec have been worked out and would be put into effect on very short notice.

CANADIAN, U.S. OFFICIALS FAVOR NIAGARA BRIDGE

NIAGARA FALLS, N.Y., May 17.—Officials of two nations broke ground yesterday for a two-belted bridge over the Niagara river, which would provide a new link between the United States and Canada.

Then in a drink concocted with champagne from both countries, representatives of Canada and the United States drank toast that the new international bridge would be a symbol of everlasting peace and that the close friendship of these two countries may have God's blessing.

"We are building in this project more than a bridge—an international bond and a symbol of peace," Hon. T. B. McQueen, Ontario minister of highways and chairman of the International Niagara Falls Bridge Commission, said.

"We are building a tangible expression of the great friendship which exists between our two great nations. The bridge which will soon be moving across the border line will be as friendly between two great and friendly nations, a utility of convenience rather than a monument of hate."

Detention Of Ship At Victoria Brings Protest From Russ

LONDON, May 17.—Soviet Ambassador Ivan M. Malykhin protested at the foreign office yesterday against the detention of a Russian-registered Norwegian ship at a Canadian Pacific port.

The ship left Victoria State waters with a cargo for Vladivostok, he said, and was bound for Seattle, B.C., where it was held by orders of Canadian authorities. Norwegian ships are under orders of British merchant marine officials.

Canadian Legion At Trail Asks Enemy Aliens Be Interned

TRAIL, B.C., May 13.—The Trail branch of the Canadian Legion has endorsed the action of the North Okanagan unit of the Legion in asking the Dominion government to intern all enemy aliens.

A telegram to Prime Minister Mackenzie King said: "Trail branch, Canadian Legion, endorsed Kalmers resolution asking for internment of all enemy aliens immediately. Your sincere consideration asked. Ten enemy aliens here in district. Public feeling naturally running high. Urges you take action at once situation is certain to get out of bounds."

Lapointe To Make House Statement On Conant's Plan

OTTAWA, May 17.—Bl. Hon. Ernest Lapointe, minister of justice, said in an interview yesterday he would make a statement in the commonsense at the first opportunity regarding the proposal of Attorney-General Conant of Ontario that his executive committee should be placed in permanent camps in the same manner as enemy aliens.

The Ontario minister said in Toronto that such internments would nullify appeals and prolonged court action where convictions are required.

"I do not wish to comment on the proposal," he said, "but I will make a statement in the house," said Mr. Lapointe.

NEW YORK, May 17.—United States newspapers gave general approval today to President Roosevelt's national defense measure to congress, several papers paying particular welcome to the president's appeal "not to take any action which would in any way hamper or delay the delivery of American-made planes to foreign nations which have ordered them."

The New York Times was among the papers which took particular note of the president's speech.

There was scattered minor criticism of the message, mainly on the point that the president did not state where the money was to come from to pay for a proposed program costing more than $1,000,000,000.

There were suggestions, too, for a revision not only of the country's defenses, but of the general policy and administration of the country.

Representative comment followed in the House of Representatives. There cannot be the slightest doubt that the country expects Congress to respond promptly to the appeal. It is now our opportunity to help demonstrate that democracy is not only a philosophy, but a way of life.

REGISTRATION IS URGED FOR B.C. MAINLAND

Vancouver Mayor Endorses Step As Safeguard For War Emergency

VANCOUVER, May 17.—Registration of all male residents of British Columbia's lower mainland would be required to register as a "military reserve" under the War Emergency Act, Vancouver Mayor Endorses a registration scheme advanced by Fred Hume, Mayor of New Westminster, B.C.

Mayor Hume's plan will require all male citizens in New Westminster between the ages of 16 and 40 to register with civic authorities, commencing next Monday. They must state their nationality, their willingness to volunteer for local service and their military experience, if any.

Mayor Endorsed said last night he favored a similar registration plan for Vancouver and that he would suggest such action at a meeting of the police commission today. He said he felt registration should be conducted under "properly constituted authority" and not haphazardly.

"A lot of people are anxious to do something," Mayor Endorsed said, and registration will give them a feeling of reassurance.

The mayor did not say whether the Vancouver plan would be compulsory, but Mayor Hume said failure of New Westminster citizens to register would bring "official notice."

N.Y. Herald Tribune Says U.S. Participation May Be Least Costly

NEW YORK, May 17.—The New York Herald Tribune said yesterday that it is quite possible that the United States might be the least costly nation for the United States against the possibility of a German attack on Germany at once.

In a lengthy editorial entitled "What is the best preparation for the United States?" the newspaper said the invasion of the low countries "has blasted two tremendous facts into the American consciousness with a vividness and immediacy not achieved by all the phantasies of the last months and years."

The first fact, the editorial said, "is that Germany may win this war," and the second is that "the German war machine is a thing as powerful as it is hideous." After outlining German methods of warfare, use of treachery, espionage and "baiting" tactics, the Herald Tribune said: "The United States must be prepared to meet the Nazi machine in force—force having every ounce of national energy, unity and resource behind it."

Warning against the United States shutting its eyes to these facts, the Herald Tribune said: "We have initiated every error of the European democracies too slavishly already. We must face the future and prepare for it now."

"One can hardly begin such an analysis without realizing that it is quite probable that the least costly nation for the defense of the world, would be to declare war on Germany at once—to help defend, under the terms of the treaty which the Allies are now holding at such sacrifice."

"The actual contribution for many months could be only in the form of airplanes and goods—that is, what we now have to contribute. If we could put the scales with that much and an even European culture industry it would be many times worth it. It is Hitler who is anyway in a few months or there are now."

PUPILS RAISE HOLIDAY FUND WITH POTATOES

Students of the local high school have launched a program for acquiring funds to finance a trip to Jasper National Park next year.

Each year 12 students carry on money-raising activities to finance such a trip, which last year took the form of a very interesting geological tour of the Icefields of Moraine Lake.

Another new experiment introduced this year by Principal Gih is the growing of vegetables, carrots, radishes, lettuce, etc., in pots, which they plan to sell this fall. The land has been loaned them by G. Murdoch, well-known oil-fitter, and all the ploughing, seeding, cultivating and harvesting is to be done by the pupils themselves, some 30 in number.

Ben Barnhart Rises Early, Works Hard And Does Handstand At 71

By E. R. STANLEY
Exclusive to Edmonton Bulletin
Don't talk to Ben Barnhart, who celebrated his seventy-first birthday last week, about his being old if you don't want to offend him.

To the question—"How does it feel to be old?" he said, "I challenge you to do it." And with the agility of a cat he turned and for end and stood on his head.

His challenge was declined. Then he turned on his questioner with the question: "How does it feel to be young?"

His life-time habit of early rising has never been broken. He said:

Creamerymen Hold Red Deer Parley: Addresses Given

The Buffalo hotel here was the scene of a meeting of Central Alberta creamerymen and butter-makers to hear addresses on the industry. There were about forty present from the district, before Captains and Wellesley and east and west of the Calgary and Edmonton lines. Talks on scientific butter-making technique were given by Dr. R. F. Thompson, president of dairymen at the University of Alberta, A. H. White, of the National Dairy Council research department, Ottawa, and D. H. McCullum, provincial dairy commissioner, Edmonton. C. C. Morberg, Marketville, was chairman at a banquet which followed the meeting.

Tests show how you react to TRAFFIC NERVES

1. DRIVING A car can be a lot of fun—but in traffic, it's hard on the nerves. However, until Dr. George H. Mount, Los Angeles psychologist, made his "Traffic Nerves" tests recently, we knew of few of us knew how hard Dr. Mount and his staff proved conclusively that there is a definite physical reaction to the strain you undergo in traffic which can be measured by medical instruments.

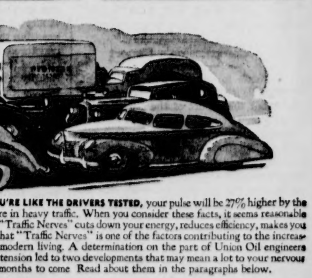

2. AS YOU CAN SEE by the instruments, Dr. Mount tested drivers in several ways. For illustration, however, he shows the pulse reaction, because it indicates how fast we are burning up nervous energy.

3. DR. MOUNT FOUND two basic types of reaction: steady strain, and shocks. Failure to make a signal, is one of the shocks that raises the driver's pulse as high as 35% above normal.

4. STALLING YOUR car is another. (One driver's pulse went from 84 to 109 in a split like this.) The noise of a police siren or a horn persistently honking is another.

5. POOR PICK-UP in a tight spot may make your pulse beat from 35% to 50% faster. After each shock, the pulse drops back. But it never gets to low as the car starts driving conditions leave the strain.

6. SO, IF YOU'RE LIKE THE DRIVERS TESTED, your pulse will be 27% higher by the time you're in heavy traffic. When you consider these facts, it seems reasonable to assume that "Traffic Nerves" cuts down your energy, reduces efficiency, makes you unduly tired, that "Traffic Nerves" is one of the factors contributing to the increased tension of modern living. A determination on the part of Union Oil engineers to combat this tension led to two developments that may mean a lot to your nervous system in the months to come. Read about them in the paragraphs below.

See how quickly you can catch on to the Two-Step Turn we've diagrammed. It's a fox-trot step.

By EDITH THOMAS WALLACE

Mother: "Always enjoy being at school today. ... Did you have your good times. I suppose all mothers would love to see their own lives in their children's."

The two-ager reacts very differently to a friendly expression of interest than she does to a cross-examination.

Dorothy Dix Says:

No doubt there are many girls who by reason of their good looks, or their entertaining line of conversation, or their general charm do not have to throw in a palling party in order to sell themselves to boys and have plenty of dates. Alas, no doubt, there are still many young men left with gallantry and chivalry in their souls who respect womanhood; who think it is an honor to take a pretty and attractive girl out to a party and who do not consider that their attention rate them the privilege of making her about. But, likewise, it is folly to deny that the great majority of modern youths demand that girls submit to familiarity from them in return for any courtesies they may have shown them, and that the price of popularity for the ordinary young woman is the self-respect.

Now all of this pining and kneeling is negligible to any girl with the slightest delicacy of feeling, and many a one has to shut her eyes and grit her teeth as she says "yes" to the shylock who has taken her to the movies or bought her a hot dog, and who will feel himself cramped and never come near her again. If she tries to walk out on him, he considers her end of the bargain.

The question of how a girl is to remain pure and undefiled and still have plenty of dates with lads full of getting the full value of every cent they spend on her has been a question that seemed impossible of solution.

But now a young Solomon has arisen who knows the answer. He thinks that the trouble is that girls want the privileges of both men and women, and they can't have 'em; and that if they are looking for some one to blame they had better look at themselves. He says:

"Nowadays women compete with men in virtually every field of endeavor—business, politics, religion, etc. Many dress in men's clothes, smoke, drink and gamble. Still they want to be treated gently, helped into cars, have doors opened for them, get annoyed if men don't give up their seats to them."

Further, they expect men to foot the bills for an evening's mutually enjoyed entertainment and think they are making a proper return by making an handsome "thank you" or giving a cozy good-night kiss.

"Men used to do these things for women without demanding anything in payment because they thought women were dependent upon them, but now when women play a dual role and are a man in the daytime and a woman at night, they just can't get away with it."

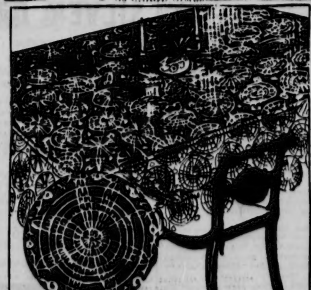

"So if a girl doesn't want to get all she has to do is just to offer herself half of the evening's bill, and the man will be glad to settle on that basis."

So there you are girls. Here is the solution to all your troubles. If you don't want to give $5 worth of getting for a 50-cent dinner, just get out the good old pocketbook and hand over the cash. I think it would be cheap at the price.

Family Re-Union Honors Former Trochu Couple

On Anniversary

TROCHU—To honor Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Haderer of Calgary on the occasion of the fifth anniversary of their wedding, a family reunion was arranged at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Haderer, Trochu, recently. Four generations of the family were in attendance.

Married in Germany in 1900, Mr. and Mrs. Haderer came to the United States four years later, residing there until 1902, when they came to Alberta to farm east of Olds. In 1911 they moved to Trochu, where they resided until 1928, when they left for California. They returned to Alberta just recently and now make their home in Calgary.

Ceremonies, roses and tulips and gold candles graced the table, which was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake, beautifully decorated in gold. Toast to the honored couple was proposed by

Mr. H. Schoellkopf and Mr. Fred Schaeffer replied. A presentation was made to them by their eldest daughter, Mrs. Lena Schaeffer. Two grandchildren, Clifford and Dolores Haderer, sang at the party. Miss Zenith Haderer played the piano. Twenty-five relatives were present.

CLEAN COFFEE MAKERS

Delicious, fragrant coffee was never made in a coffee pot that was not absolutely clean. The least bit of sediment from previous coffee making will spoil the flavor of the fresh brew. Wash the coffee maker after each using in hot soap suds, using a small brush to scrub out the spout. Rinse and scald with boiling water. Once a week fill it with water to which a tablespoon of soda has been added and bring it to a boil. Then wash as usual with soap and water. Electric coffee makers should, of course, never be immersed in water.

Legion Is Seeking Organization Here Of Defence Corps

Sponsored by the Canadian Legion, B.E.S.L., a mass meeting of ex-servicemen has been called for eight o'clock tonight at the Memorial Hall to discuss organization of a volunteer home defence corps for protection of citizens and property from enemies within the country.

I Saw Today

The action was decided on at a meeting of the Edmonton branch of the Legion Thursday night at which a resolution was passed urging the government to take special steps to curb "fifth column" activities.

Declaring that the conquest of Holland and Norway had demonstrated the result of treachery within a country, the meeting in its resolution stated there was evidence that a "fifth column" existed within Canada at present.

The resolution urged immediate intervention of all German-born males in Canada from the age of 16 to 60 for the duration of the war.

"We have seen how treachery and brutality have worked to undermine other countries and we believe that to preserve our country, the co-operation of all citizens should be suspended, towards citizens for the duration of the war," the resolution said.

The government also was urged to recruit home defence guards and to suspend all further naturalization of persons during the war.

The resolution, moved by W. R. R. B. Twiss, a St. Albert resident, was seconded by J. H. McLeod, a St. Albert resident. It was unanimously adopted. The resolution also stated that the government should take steps to curb "fifth column" activities.

Forecast Shows Improvement For Weekend Weather

The weatherman appeared to be making a gallant attempt to manufacture a "spot" of good weather for Edmonton over the weekend with the forecast for Friday and Saturday being fair with little change in temperature. The temperature at 6:30 a.m. Friday was 51 above and the barometric pressure 27.34 unsteady. The sky was clear and the temperature rising.

The high wind of the past two days appeared to be dropping Friday morning. Highest temperature Thursday was 38 above and the low mark was 27 above. There was 31 inches of precipitation Thursday afternoon.

Temperatures were rising in the near north Friday, with the highest reading at 8:20 a.m. 57 above, being recorded at House River. Low temperature was 45 above, being recorded at House River. Skies were clearing with Fort Vermilion and Mirror Landing being the only points reporting cloudy conditions.

CITY COUNCIL WILL COMBAT 5TH COLUMN

Civic Government and Citizens Ready To Help, Mayor Says

The Edmonton city council and citizens stand ready to give all assistance to combat activities in this city, Mayor John W. Fry, in an interview Friday morning.

Initiative measures in combat activities are being taken by the federal government, he stated, and immediate action by Edmonton's city council might confuse and perhaps interfere with steps being taken by R.C.M.P. in dealing with disloyal agents.

Mayor Fry stated he had confidence in the officers of the R.C.M.P. and had assurance from them that the fifth column situation in Edmonton was well in hand.

The fullest co-operation will be given to the military and police in combating any subversive activities he stated.

Street Scene: Parking Penalty

Waiting for his wife while the little woman of the family shopping is an expensive business—particularly when you park the old jalopy overline in the busy downtown shopping district. Here, Const. Walter Crawford handing thoughtless hubby, dollar traffic law, near intersection of 101 street and 102 avenue. The driver (he in the car) exceeded the parking limit and was caught by a chalk mark placed on the tire by the traffic officer three hours before his picture was taken. "I was waiting for my wife," says the driver. "Sorry, but you broke the law," says Const. Crawford.

AROUND THE TOWN

The regular monthly meeting of the library board, scheduled for Thursday evening, has been postponed for one week.

A meeting of the 31st Battalion Association will be held at the Masonic Temple on Saturday at 8 p.m. to discuss matters of importance. A large attendance of members is requested.

NATURAL LEARNING

"It is reasonable to presume in the majority of cases that those of German birth, raised in this country, whether naturalized or not, are not a menace to the community. A large attendance of members is requested.

"In Norway and Holland particularly a fifth column has led to the downfall of peace-loving countries and indecorable treachery, ruthlessness and brutality have been demonstrated by the adherents of Hitlerism.

"Canada is populated with many of the German race, who, at this very moment, may be working loyally to breed unrest and uncertainty and by this means, and through treacherous propaganda, undermine moral and even constitutional authority itself."

Deportation Of Aliens Is Urged

VANCOUVER, May 17.—A resolution demanding deportation of all aliens now in concentration camps was supported today by 2,000 persons who attended a meeting sponsored by the British Canadian Aliens Club.

Other resolutions reported at the meeting last night were:

- 1.—That employers use British-Canadian and Allied workers in preference to naturalized Germans and enemy aliens.
- 2.—That the federal government suspend naturalization of aliens for the duration of the war.
- 3.—That increased and persistent vigilance be maintained over all enemy alien activities.

The Inquiring Reporter

THE QUESTION

"What do you think of the recommendation of the Royal Commission on Federal-Provincial relations?"

THE ANSWERS
JOHN BLAKE, chairman of Commerce, As the Chamber of Commerce made comprehensive submissions to the commission and followed all details of its work with great interest, we naturally are concerned with the final report. It is clear that the recommendations are so sweeping that they call for a re-definition of the province of the federal and provincial governments. The report will be studied very carefully.

HOWARD MCINTYRE, merchant, "We are pleased to have the report probably be issued by Ontario and Quebec governments. Public opinion will be able to carry the day, however, if it is mobilized and studied very carefully."

JOHN HART, hardware merchant, "I am sure that the report has to be studied very carefully before all its implications can be understood. It is the result of investigation of one mind and is subjective, and it is impossible to judge their importance without full study."

HOWARD MCINTYRE, student, "There will be a natural tendency on the part of members of parliament to try to ignore the report, since being the responsibility of most commissions. But it should be borne in upon parliament that the Canadian public wants as much action on the report as the war effort may permit. It is the result of investigation of one mind and is subjective, and it is impossible to judge their importance without full study."

Premier Leaves

Through The Mill

Of course he might not have got off scot free, because no one else was so well as he in the mind of the magistrate until after he had been in trouble before, but nothing serious, the police stating the lad had paid two or three small calls in the Calgary police station a few years ago, but had been released after explaining why he was without work and visible support.

"Nothing to say sir," was the only answer. Given in clear, almost cheerful tones by the accused to every effort made by the bench to elicit an explanation. Finally, rather sadly, he said, "His Worship pronounced sentence of days in the Fort Saskatchewan jail."

I.O.D.E. Contributions Are Climbing In City: Soldiers Need Comforts

Contributions to the Imperial Order of the Daughters of the Empire Fund are slowly climbing. Through the fund, tobacco, cigarettes, chocolate and other comforts will be forwarded to the boys of the Canadian Active Service Force serving overseas.

If you are contemplating sending any of these comforts to the boys, there are advantages in sending your money to the I.O.D.E. and requesting them with the lack of providing comforts.

In the first place, Canadian transportation companies have agreed to carry these comforts free. In the second place, excise will be saved. Therefore, your money will go further in providing the actual comforts.

The I.O.D.E. did splendid work during the World War of 1914-1918 and the order is taking up where it was laid down before.

The Bulletin is happy to receive subscriptions to this fund and will acknowledge same through these columns.

West Defence Batteries Quite Careful Guard Canada's Pacific Port

Editor's Note.—The following is the third in a series of articles on Canada's west coast defenses, written by a British United Press Staffer, who is following a press tour arranged by the Dept. of National Defence.

WITH THE CANADIAN DEFENCE FORCES ON THE WEST COAST, MAY 17—As at Victoria's aristocratic Union Club several weeks after war had broken out, that a group of men were discussing Canada's ability to repel a hostile warship, should the attempt to shell a west coast harbor.

On the floor I saw the big guns that guard British Columbia's vital seaports. The guns, they stand ready in battered batteries, wherever an invading warship might attack.

POINT TO HORIZON

On lonely promontories jutting into the sea, clinging to rocky cliffs overlooking the Pacific, at a score of points they gazed round, manned day and night, their range barrels always pointing toward the horizon over which an enemy might appear.

At one such battery, comprising part of the elaborate coast defenses, we saw in detail how Canada's harbor artillery stands ready for attack at any moment.

Looking out over the bay from a high, rocky cliff, we began to see the outlines of the coast, a steep climb up to the battery, a steep climb down to the sea.

Duff Cooper Advises Against Placing Faith In Various War Rumors

LONDON, May 17.—Alfred Duff Cooper, new minister of information, said in a broadcast last night, his first since assuming his duties, that "we at home should be as well prepared to receive bad news as to the battle line are prepared to receive better news from the enemy."

He said, "but other rumors only a little less about might make some faint-hearted people tremble."

He urged his hearers not only to "refuse to believe rumors yourself but also to discourage those who spread rumors and are in the enemies of public confidence who should be improved and then punished if they persist."

The minister quoted Lord Haig, British commander-in-chief, the last war, as saying, "No news is so good as no news at all. It is better to hear nothing than to hear what you first hear it."

"I would advise all listeners to low actual revenues in excess of $7,000,000."

WARNING FOR ITALY NEEDED TO AID ALLIES

LONDON, May 17.—The New Chronicle said today that the only way the United States could give the Allies effective help at this moment would be to warn Italy that if she enters the war it will find America at the side of the Allies.

"We badly need every plane we get and the American contribution are valuable," the newspaper said. "But the planes that America can send during the next few weeks will be only a small factor in the battle."

"The prospect is that the pressure on the Allies will become more and more in the near future through the entry of Italy into the war and the only way America could give effective help at this moment would be to warn Italy that such a move would find the United States at the Allies' side."

So Love (Gulp) Laughs at (Gulp) Locksmiths, Eh?

Comph Gai Ann Sheridan proved so attractive to Dick Brannen, University of California undergrad, that when she arrived at a Hollywood theatre, he sidled up, snapped handcuffs on her wrist and his, swallowed the key and signed: "At last!" No lovers' sigh was Ann's reaction: "I ought to slap you down." Above, the shocked Sheridan gives Brannen the irate eye as he points to the key's repository. A locksmith put, aunder what collegiate prankishness had joined together.

Street Cleaner Becomes Bishop

Fellow workers greet the Reverend Eustachio Piodelli, right, a humble street cleaner for the New York department of sanitation, who was consecrated a bishop of the church of God, Sunday, May 5, but who will remain a street cleaner, continuing the rounds he started in the Brownsville section of N. Y., 12 years ago. His elevation will make him the supreme authority over about 600 Protestant churches worshipping in the Italian language. For several years, the Rev. Piodelli has been pastor of a Brooklyn church.

Hizzoner Does His Bit

When the ladies of Harking, Eng., get together and patriotically knit socks, sweaters and helmets for the boys at the front, Mayor W. H. Marry? Marry? Quite Contrary!

The report that film actress Arlene Judge and New York socialite James McKelvey Bryant were married after attending the Derby in Louisville, Ky., is not true. At least, so says Arlene and so says Jimmy. The story got around, he is reported to have explained, because "as a gag" he announced the wedding in a Louisville club. They are pictured at a New York night club after their return from Kentucky.

MAJOR FRED BREWSTER

It was Major Brewster who guided the first American tourist over the approximate route of the new Columbia Icefield Highway in 1912. He was Samuel Prescott Fay of Boston.

Columbia Icefield Highway on the route Fred Brewster once guided the Bostonian.

The Columbia Icefield Highway reaches the climax of its grandeur in Jasper National Park. For 75 miles from Jasper Park Lodge to the point where the tongue of the Athabasca Glacier flows over the mountain into the valley, the scene is one of indescribable beauty and grandeur. Sometimes the highway becomes an avenue in a forest, sometimes it scurries by the feet of ice-rimmed crests, and it keeps company with ever-aid rivers and it is wet by cold spray of waterfalls dropping from hidden heights. Everywhere, the white plumes of unconquered peaks pierce the sky and one staring portrait passes only to be replaced by another equally breathless beauty.

His Bark Is Worse Than His Bite

With that gas mask on, this British war dog could bark at a German, but he couldn't bite him. Men of Toronto Scottish Regiment in England are pictured training him to go through smoke of battle. He'll be part of pooh patrol during entry and messenger duty at the front.

BUSINESS IS STIMULATED THROUGH WAR

Air Training Plan Helps Conditions, W. D. King Declares

Industrial stimulus in Alberta as a result of war has been a boon, and it is already in evidence, although not on a large scale, stated W. D. King, deputy minister of trade and commerce, Friday, and it is not anticipated that employment opportunities will be greatly different to last year.

Development of the Empire Air Training Scheme, stated Mr. King, was the most hopeful sign in the industrial horizon, in connection with which there would be considerable construction work, and subsequent employment for both general and technical workers.

He anticipated that a number of Alberta students and graduates will be absorbed in the scheme.

Lack of raw materials, and high freight rates, he continued, have militated against Alberta's export of large war contracts, although some good contracts have been given to Alberta packing plants for army supplies, and to the Hargrave Woolen Mills for army blankets.

The volume of business to come to Alberta, and whether we can get it, will depend upon how long the war lasts, and how much help will be needed, stated Mr. King.
